

School Book list for the Iris Harvest School of Missions

Updated January, 2010

We recommend that you purchase your books early and read them before you arrive in Mozambique. The schedule is very full in Pemba and it is difficult to find time to read the books while you are there. The required reading list is part of the prerequisites to graduate from the Iris Harvest School. We will also be sending a few articles to read by email.

All of the following books of the School Book list, are available at www.amazon.com. Amazon will ship purchases of $25 or more free by regular mail in the US.

This option solves problems for people who are already over extended. It will make the books available to you at the lowest possible cost since you can purchase either new or used copies.
